

The Case of Thomas Foley Esq;, concerning his Election for the Town of Bewdley, in the County of Worcester; humbly presented to the consideration of the Honourable, the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes, in Parliament Aſſembled.

SIR Henry Herbert, late Burgeſs for the ſaid Burrough, dying, a Writ Iſſued, for electing a new Member to ſerve in his place; which Writ coming to be executed, there ſtood for the Burgeſſhip,

Henry Herbert Esq;
Tho. Foley Esq;

The number of Electors preſent, were Fifty Two;
of theſe, Henry Herbert had 18.
Tho. Foley had 34.

Againſt ſome of the ſaid Tho. Foley his Electors, exceptions were taken upon their coming to Pole; but in conſideration, that they had been admitted upon all former Elections in their time, to have a right to give their Votes in Election, the exceptions were waved, and the Perſons excepted againſt, admitted to the Pole; and the rather, becauſe, Firſt, they Poled for the ſaid Henry Herbert his Father, when he was Eleſted, againſt Sir Ralph Clare, who then ſtood in competition with him for the ſaid Election.

Secondly, If the Exceptions againſt them had been good, the ſame Exceptions would have lain againſt all Mr. Herberts Electors.

Thirdly, If all thoſe, againſt whom the ſaid Mr. Herbert took Exceptions, had been ſet aſide; yet had Mr. Foley more voices (againſt which, no Exception either was, or could be made) than the ſaid Herbert had to Eleſt him, if no Exceptions had been taken to any one of his Electors.
